PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Melbourne Employability Accelerator, 01/2023 - 02/2023

Lokahi Foundation – The University of Melbourne

- The Lokahi Foundation is a nonprofit organization that works to end domestic violence. It not only provides victims with specific programs and legal assistance to get rid of domestic violence, but also runs the 'Shine' program to alleviate and even resolve the psychological trauma of victims. Help them regain their confidence and start a new life.
- Clients want to expand their presence on social media (Instagram; Facebook) to help more victims of domestic violence. By comparing the data and content of industry research and social platforms with foundations of the same nature, the team came up with specific plans for the promotion of social platforms. At the same time for the Lokahi Foundation website platform optimization reasonable suggestions.

Business Startups, 03/2022 - Current

Pets Funeral And Interment

- Nowadays, more and more families keep pets. They are not only a member of the family, but also the spiritual support of many people. These pets are often people's closest and family members. When they leave the family due to illness or age, we relieve the pain in the hearts of our owners through incineration and funeral.
- Operation mode: Obtain orders directly by signing contracts with pet hospitals. At the same time, we advertised in pet bath, storage and sale shops to get orders from the community.
- Business Scope: Pet incineration, pet funeral, pet memorial peripheral.

Club President, 09/2018 - 06/2020

Student Council

- Trained new members on proper protocols and a purpose of Student Council, and guided team members to maintain high productivity and performance metrics. Also, resolve conflicts between members and problems arising in organizational activities.
- During my tenure, I led a Student Union to organize many large-scale campus activities, such as Christmas, Halloween, game night, movie night, and flea market.

Debate Club

Melbourne CDG

- Melbourne CDG is the University of Melbourne Chinese Debating Club.
- To improve the ability of team cooperation, members brainstorm the topic and work together. Help your teammates when they are at a disadvantage in a match.
- Through the competition, I can enhance my logical thinking ability and critical thinking ability, so that I can better think out different positive and negative views through a theme.

Model Business Competition, 06/2018 - 06/2018

MicroBiz

- During the seven-day activity, we learned what teamwork is, and how to break through difficulties with team thinking by setting up our own company, product design, publicity and sales.
- For our competitors, we learned to show respect, friendliness and willingness to help wherever needed.
- Participated in continuous improvement by generating suggestions, and engaging in problem-solving activities to support teamwork.

Volunteer, 11/2018 - 11/2018

Rehabilitation Center For Disabled Children

- Donate clothing, books, toys and supplies for children with disabilities.
- Provide care and companionship for children with disabilities, such as telling stories, playing games and learn to relieve the pain of children through massage.
